

Explore Innovations

Unit 3: Intro Video

Unit 3: Explore Innovations: Advanced Techniques Intro

Learning Objectives

- Identify alternative funding models and see examples of how they work
- Reflect on promising practices and challenges
- Assess which models are most suitable for their organization now and in the future
- Build their confidence to use alternative funding models

After completing the first part of this unit, through the Change the Game Academy, you'll be able to:

- Identify alternative funding models and see examples of how they work.
- Reflect on promising practices and challenges.
- Assess which models are most suitable for your organization now and in the future.
- Build your confidence to use alternative funding models.

Learning Objectives

- Explain the possibilities for innovative finance in the international cooperation sector
- Explain the basic premise of innovative finance
- Reflect on opportunities and challenges of innovative finance in the Canadian context

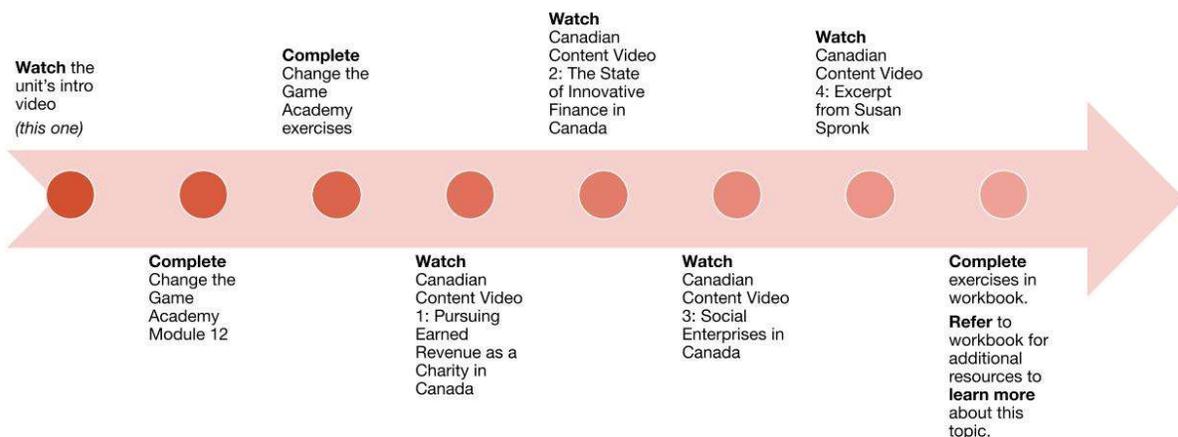

Photo by Isaac Yuen on Unsplash

After completing the second part of Unit 3, the Canadian content portion, participants will be able to:

- Explain the possibilities for innovative finance in the international cooperation sector.
- Explain the basic premise of innovative finance.
- Reflect on opportunities and challenges of innovative finance in the Canadian context.

How to complete Unit 3

After watching this introductory video, click the link to Change the Game Academy's Module 12. After completing Module 12 including relevant exercises, return to this page, to access the Canadian content videos. Once you've gone through these materials, please refer to your workbook for Unit 3A exercises and additional resources.

This video is part of the Building Equity: Resource Mobilization for Impact training series.

The series is available online via the Spur Change Resource Library. Made possible in collaboration with JNC Consulting and Change the Game Academy.

Thank you